

Incident Management SOP

This SOP explains how to handle system incidents.

If a High severity alarm is triggered, notify the on-call engineer immediately.

Check logs, restart services if required, and document the incident.

Close the incident only after system stability is confirmed.